

A Conversation with Kevin Hines

Tuesday,
December 7th
7:30 PM

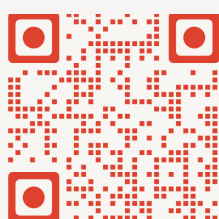

Virtual Event

Come Watch in the following locations
Upper Champlin, Room 200 in the Library or the Veteran Lounge in Warner Hall

The SUNY Cobleskill Writers' Group will host a Zoom conversation with award-winning mental health advocate and author, Kevin Hines. Join the Zoom from your computer/phone or screen it together in Upper Champlin.

Wellness Center staff will be available at the Upper Champlin screening.

At age 19, Hines nearly became one of the more than 2,000 people who have jumped to their deaths from the Golden Gate Bridge which was built in 1937. Fortunately, Hines became part of a much better statistic -- he is the 26th person known to have survived the 220-foot fall from the Golden Gate Bridge.
